

Society for Commercial Archeology

Falling by the Wayside

10 Most Endangered Roadside Places, 2012

To nominate a roadside place to the list, please complete this form and return to SCA by May 15, 2012. E-mail submissions and questions regarding the nomination process can be directed to SCA's Falling by the Wayside committee: sca.endangered@gmail.com. By postal mail, send submissions to: Society for Commercial Archeology, Attn: Falling by the Wayside, PO Box 24311, Santa Fe, NM, 87502.

All items on the nomination form must be complete in order to receive consideration.

Nominated Place Information

Current name _____

Historic or popular name _____

Location with street address _____

City or county with jurisdiction over resource _____

Original use _____

Current use _____

Date of construction, if known _____

Contact Information for Owner of Nominated Place (required)

Owner's Name _____

Address _____

Phone Number _____ E-mail _____

Does owner support this nomination? Yes ___ No ___

Contact Information for Local or State Advocate for Nominated Place (required)

Advocate's Name _____

Address _____

Phone Number _____ E-mail _____

Your Contact Information (required)

Name _____

Title (if applicable) _____

Organization or Affiliation (if applicable) _____

Address _____

Phone Number _____ E-mail _____

Do you want your name to be kept confidential? Yes ___ No ___

Additional Information (required) Attach additional sheets as necessary.

1. Describe the physical appearance of the place, including unique characteristics and current condition.
2. Provide a brief history of the place, including its historical significance and its importance to the community.
3. Has the place been listed on or determined eligible for the National Register of Historic Places and/or a state or local historical designation?
4. Describe the threat to this place. Are there ways to minimize the threat?
5. Are there currently any preservation efforts underway to protect this place?
6. Attach current original and/or copyright cleared photographs or digital images and at least one historic image, if available. (Photographs can be e-mailed or put on a CD and mailed with the nomination material).
7. If available, provide supporting materials, including newspaper articles and letters of support.
8. If available, please provide contact information for local newspapers and preservation organizations.

The Society for Commercial Archeology will not return submission materials and retains the right to use all materials in promoting current and future Falling by the Wayside lists. For more information, visit our website: <http://www.sca-roadside.org>